LAYMEN'S MOVEMENT

Being Heartily Received In All Sections Of Knox County

The Laymen's Movement of the county is being heartily received by all the communities where the matter is being presented.

Wednesday the matter was presented in convention held at Danville. The meetings were held in the M. E. church and there was a good attendance during the afternoon and evening.

On this occasion the entertainment was furnished by Mrs. Rudolph and Mrs. Weaver. Both of these ladies did splendid work and succeeded in entertaining their audiences splendidly. The next convention will be held at Centerville Friday afternoon and evening, and the concluding one at Martinsburg Sunday.

For the county convention to be held in Mt. Vernon, Thursday of next week, Mr. J. Campbell White, general secretary for the National movement has assured the committee that he will have one of the strongest speakers in the country present. These meetings will be held Thursday afternoon and evening, the people of the entire county being invited.

OLD CHUMS

Meet In Columbus After A 50 Years' Separation

One Is A Resident Of Danville, Knox County

John Jamison And George Logsdon Are Reunited

By Mere Accident And Spent A Pleasant Hour

Both Men Are Now Over 70 Years Of Age

The following story from the Columbus Dispatch will be of interest to Knox county people, especially those living in Danville and vicinity for the George Logsdon referred to in the article is a resident of Danville:

"To meet an old playmate after an interval of 50 years was the unusual experience of John Jamison, aged 74, of 267 Rose avenue, a few days ago.

"George Logsdon, aged 73, father of George Logsdon of Lilley avenue and Main street, is paying his son a visit. Mr. Jamison met Mr. Logsdon Jr. in front of the latter's house the other day, and upon hearing his name, remarked: 'Why, I knew a family of Logsdons who used to live in Knox county, and who used to chum with a young man by the name of George Logsdon. Is he a relative of your?'

"'He is my father,' replied Mr. Logsdon, 'and he is at my house now. Won't you come in and see him?'

"As may be imagined, the two men had much to say to each other after the long separation. Old times were discussed, and each had much to tell of his experiences since the two were chums fifty years ago.

"Mr. Jamison is one of the oldest residents of the East Side, having lived in the same house for the past 45 years. He can distinctly remember driving his cow back and forth from his present home at Franklin and Rose avenues to the old Nell woods, always riding horseback. For over forty years he was in business as a ropemaker on Main street, retiring from active business three years ago. He is a veteran of the Civil war and a member of the Wells Post, G. A. R.

BLADENSBURG

Y. M. C. A. NOTES

The Sunday club of the Y. M. C. A. has arranged for the discussion of a series of practical and every-day questions. The leading representative attorneys, educators, ministers and physicians will be asked to handle the various topics.

The following is a list of topics that will be discussed, but the speakers have not all been secured:—Legal Delays, Taxation, Public Economy, The School Boy and Citizenship, Elections, Business Principles, Sanitation, etc, etc.

The first meeting in this series will be next Sunday at 3 o'clock and the speaker for this occasion is Hon. L. B. Houck, who will discuss the topic, "Legal Holidays."

There will be special music arranged for this meeting and a very cordial invitation is extended to all the men of the community.

At 4 o'clock the Rev. J. J. Houston will speak to the boys of the community, taking as his topic, "The Christmas Spirit." This also will be a very interesting and profitable meeting for boys over 12 years of age.

In the bowling contest Tuesday night the C. A. & C. took 2 out of 3 games from the Cooper Draftsmen and winning the contest by 95 pins. Scores as follows:

His Appreciation

The business man thoroughly appreciates his checking account. Those who do not keep such an account miss many of its advantages.

We are always glad to explain the workings of a checking-account of those who are not familiar with them.
